Run Date: 11/14/2003

(U) A new course has been announced:

AREA4145, Latin America: Moving Outside the U.S. Sphere of Influence?

Class #TBD, Section #01, FY04
8, 9, 12 December 03, MTF, 0800-1600
NBP Complex #2701

(U) DESCRIPTION: This three-day seminar will focus on the rise of populist and left-of-center leaders in Latin America over the past five years and what effects this will have on U.S. policy in the region. Special attention will be directed toward the factors that have led to the rise of these leaders such as: government incapacity, corruption, weak judicial systems, lack of security, human rights abuses, economic crises, income inequality, and lack of access to adequate healthcare, education, jobs, political representation, etc. This trend toward populism in the region will be examined in terms of how it impacts upon American foreign policy. NOTE: This session will be videotaped.
